

The following is a listing of museums and commercial and public galleries currently advertising in Where Toronto, plus others that Where editors believe are worthy of your attention. Some information regarding hours of operation and specific dates is subject to change. Call ahead to avoid disappointment. refer to the maps on pages 94 to 97.

ANTIQUES 51
 ART EVENTS 51
 GALLERIES—COMMERCIAL 51
 GALLERIES—PUBLIC 54
 MUSEUMS 55

ANTIQUES

ALEXANDRE ANTIQUE PRINTS, MAPS & BOOKS Specializes in 15th- to 19th-century rare maps of the world, decorative prints, and illustrated books and atlases. Mon.-Sat. 593 Mount Pleasant Rd., 416-364-2376. Map 1 B6

BELLE EPOQUE Euro-chic home decor and women's accessories. A celebration of colour and design with handbags, jewellery, tableware, art and furnishings. Open daily. 1066 Yonge St., 416-925-0066. Map 1 F4

FLIK & COMPANY Partners Steven Howard and Robert Yandt have turned their passion for collecting into a business. Find home decor accessories, painted furniture, folk art, architectural pieces, vintage holiday items and much more. Wed.-Mon. 1022 Queen St. E., 647-439-8697. Map 2 G10

HORSEFEATHERS HOME A 12,000-square-foot space accommodates a fine collection of French country and English formal furniture, antique lighting and chandeliers, pine furniture, and decorative pieces. Open daily. 1212 Yonge St., 416-934-1771 Map 1 E5; 1400 Castlefield Ave., 416-486-4555. Map 2 E7

INGRAM ANTIQUES & COLLECTIBLES Shop offers 19th-century Canadian country furniture, as well as collectibles, home decor items and original Canadian works of art, including native and folk art pieces. Wed.-Sun. 669 Mount Pleasant Rd., 416-484-4601. Map 1 A6

STUART JACKSON GALLERY Established gallery specializing in antique Japanese woodblock prints known as Ukiyo-e. Tue.-Sat., or by appointment. 108A Cumberland St., 416-967-9166. Map 1 G4

TORONTO ANTIQUES ON KING In the Theatre District, this collection of antiques dealers offers a world-class selection of vintage and estate jewellery, Chinese porcelain, Lalique crystal, Canadian art and much more. Showcase galleries display rotating collections from smaller dealers. Tue.-Sun. 284 King St. W., 416-345-9941. Map 1 L4

ART EVENTS

TORONTO OUTDOOR ART EXHIBITION July 10-12. Canada's largest outdoor art show. Find original pieces by more than 500 emerging and established artists working in a variety of media—from painting to ceramics and everything in between. Free admission. Call 416-408-2754 for more information. Nathan Phillips Square, 100 Queen St. W. Map 1 K4

GALLERIES—COMMERCIAL

ANGELL GALLERY This West Queen West institution focuses on emerging and mid-career artists, many

Open-Air Viewing

JULY 10 TO 12 Admire expressive imagination and aesthetics as Nathan Phillips Square becomes a gallery for more than 500 emerging and established artists at the Toronto Outdoor Art Exhibition (this page). From paintings to pinch pots, the selected creations—including Blair (pictured) by James Olley—vary in genre as well as media. Now in its 48th year, the display is the largest of its kind in Canada and inspires artistic awe in more than 100,000 visitors. Admission is free. Call 416-408-2754 or visit www.torontooutdoorart.org for more information and a full list of exhibitors.

—Lindsay Hope

of whom are Toronto-based, working in the advanced currents of contemporary artistic practice. Opens July 11: Luke Painter, brush-and-ink paintings that showcase the artist's meticulous technique and eye for detail. Wed.-Sat. 890 Queen St. W., 416-530-0444. Map 2 G8

ARCTIC NUNAVUT Owned and operated by the Nunavut Development Corporation. Find a wide selection of Inuit carvings, as well as clothing, jewellery, packing dolls, books and unique giftware. Open daily. Queen's Quay Terminal, 416-203-7889 Map 1 M4; Pearson International Airport, Terminal 3, 416-776-4341. Map 2 D3

ART INTERIORS Established in 1993 by owners Lisa Diamond Katz and Shira Wood, this gallery represents more than 200 emerging—predominantly Canadian—artists and offers their works at affordable prices. Mon.-Sat. 446 Spadina Rd., ste. 203, 416-488-3157. Map 1 D2

ART METROPOLE Conceptual artworks by Canadian and international artists working in alternative media. Collection extends from the '60s to contemporary pieces. Also publishes and distributes artists' book works and offers artists' multiples. Tue.-Sat. 788 King St. W., 416-703-4400. Map 2 G8

>> CLOSE The easiest way to get your fill of contemporary art in Toronto? Stroll down Queen Street West, where Angell Gallery (this page), Lausberg Contemporary (page 52), Edward Day Gallery (page 52) and many more top art spots sit within just a few blocks of each other.